“Rules of the Game”

We believe in playing to your fullest potential. To help you ‘show up’, here are the “Rules of the Game”. This is how you’ll have to play, in order to stay...

1

Be On Time

Ensure you keep to your time agreement.

2

No Gossip

Gossip and ‘Side Chatter’ kills culture and organisations. Be polite and speak directly to the person.

3

Manage Your State

You’re 100% responsible for your state of mind. Manage your hydration, nutrition, sleep and wellbeing throughout your time here. It’s impossible to absorb the learnings if your state is crap.

4

No Judgement:

- a. ‘Don’t Judge up’ - “Look at them, they’re doing much better than me, poor me...”
- b. ‘Don’t Judge Down’ - “Can’t believe they have that problem, silly person...”

5

Speak with Good Purpose

Speak supportively. Respect people’s rights to have different viewpoints without making them wrong.

6

Complete your agreements:

Make only agreements that you are willing and intending to keep. Communicate any potential broken agreements at the first opportunity.

7

Each Person’s Truth

Acknowledge whatever is being communicated as true for the speaker at that moment. If you disagree or do not understand, ask clarifying questions.

8

Stay Above the Line

If you go below the line and make excuses, lay blame or justify, you agree to put $2 in the charity jar before the day is out. Be responsible.

9

I, Not You

Always speak from a place of I, not you.

Example:

- a. NOT “You know what it’s like in business, you never have enough time”
- b. “In my business, I don’t make enough time”

10

100% Full Tilt

Play the game at 100% Full Tilt!

11

Smile and Have Fun

Remember to enjoy yourself and have fun. The more you do this the more you will learn... and life is too short not to 😊
